

Name _____

Children of the Midnight Sun

1. How does the author begin the section on page 282? How does it fit into the overall structure of this selection?
2. Selina never takes off her ring or bracelet. What does this tell you about her? (p.283)
3. What information in the text shows you that the Haidas blend tradition and modern life? (p.284)
4. Do the Haida place importance upon their traditions? Cite evidence to explain your answer. (p. 284)
5. What is the central idea of the section "Haida history"? How does the author convey this idea? (p. 285)
6. What foods do the Haida get directly from Nature? (p.286)

What foods do they buy from the grocery store? (p.286)
7. How does the author illustrate how the two clans work together? (p.287)

8. How do the words lush and teeming help you to understand Klukwan's surroundings? (p.288)

9. The author says that Tlingit children no longer leave home for the avunculate. What does this help you infer about Tlingit culture? (p.289)

10. What text evidence explains why Tlingit tradition has an uncle help teach the tribe's children? (p.289)

11. How was the attitude toward traditional ways different in the early 1900s? What details tell you why this probably happened? (p.290)

12. What can you tell about Josh based on the detail he gives on how to prepare salmon to be smoked? (p.291)

Essential Question: What kinds of things might two cultures have in common?