

To add or subtract two fractions

You need a common denominator

To add or subtract two fractions

You need a common denominator

Make a butterfly

Then you multiply

The bottom of one fraction times the top of the other.

Make a butterfly

Then you multiply

The bottoms to get another --- denominator.

To add or subtract two fractions

You need a common denominator

To add or subtract two fractions

You need a common denominator